Question 33. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow. Tick  your answers:

(5 × 2 = 10)

The Darling family lived in a quiet street in London. There were three children in the family — Wendy, Michael and John. For them, the best time of the day was bedtime when they were together in the nursery. Wendy told them wonderful stories about Peter Pan and NEVER NEVERLAND. It was a magical place with mermaids, fairies and pirates. John and Michael loved playing 'pirates'. They often had fighting contests between Peter Pan and his enemy, the pirate Captain Hook. Mr. Darling, the children's father, did not like them playing these games. He blamed Wendy for this. He did not like the stories either. He said that Wendy was too old to be in the nursery with the boys. She was then given a separate room.
