LETTER FROM THE EDITORIAL TEAM

FROM THE CHIEF GUEST

DIRECTOR, MR. GOPI SIR ON THE ENTREPRENEURSHIP EVENT

Mr. Gopi expressed that the event was very successful and highlighted that entrepreneurship is about starting something new, such as a business or startup. He appreciated the students' enthusiastic and innovative participation, noting the creativity even in their food presentations. He added that combining these efforts with art, music, and other innovative ideas would be highly beneficial for the students' future.

FROM THE PRINCIPLE

PRINCIPAL, MS. ASNA NAFEES MA'AM'S PERSPECTIVE ON THE EVENT

The Principal stated that the event was thoughtfully planned to give every child a chance to develop their talents and acquire new skills. She described it as a genuine example of experiential learning and noted that Jamboree has been held for many years with an extraordinary response from students. She added that it was wonderful to see the children learning while also thoroughly enjoying themselves.

FROM THE CORE ORGANIZING TEAM

MS. NASIMA SHAIKH, COMMERCE CLUB IN-CHARGE

Ms. Nasima Shaikh, Commerce Club In-Charge, highlighted the diverse categories through which students were able to showcase their skills and knowledge. She observed that the event provided learning experiences beyond academics, particularly in developing leadership qualities and teamwork. She noted an example of a game stall where winners received free food coupons, demonstrating how students creatively applied concepts of promotion and marketing. Ms. Nasima emphasized that activities like these encourage collaboration, practical learning, and confidence-building among students.

FROM THE JUDGES

MS. PRITI KETANBHAI MODI , ACTIVITY COORDINATOR , CLASSES IX-XII

Ms. Preeti congratulated the directors of the Commerce and Entrepreneurship Club, the teachers in charge, and all staff who worked behind the scenes to make the event successful. She emphasized the importance of entrepreneurship at the school level, highlighting how DPS Modern Indian School focuses on holistic development. According to her, events like this not only impart knowledge but also teach practical life skills such as marketing, business progression, and product presentation. She affirmed that these skills will greatly benefit the students in utilizing their knowledge in the future.

MS. VIJAYASREE G NAIR , ACADEMIC COORDINATOR, CLASSES IX -X

Ms. Vijayasree described the experience of judging the events as wonderful and expressed being impressed by the energy, enthusiasm, and creativity of the participants. They found it inspiring to see the effort the students put into their performances, food, and activities.

MS. RACHEL ALWYN, ACADEMIC COORDINATOR .
CLASSES VII – VIII

Ms. Rachel expressed immense pride in the students' efforts and creativity, noting that the Jamboree truly reflected their enthusiasm, teamwork, and entrepreneurial spirit. She appreciated the way the event blended learning with enjoyment, giving students an opportunity to apply their knowledge in practical, imaginative, and meaningful ways. She congratulated all participants and teachers for making the event a memorable success.

FROM THE JUDGES

MS. SONAL SAMPATH, ACTIVITY
COORDINATOR , CLASSES III- V

Ms. Sonal praised the event for its enthusiastic children and excellent organization. She especially appreciated the food prepared by the students, describing it as extremely good.

MS. MANIKSHA BALODI, ACTIVITY
COORDINATOR, CLASSES VI- VIII

According to Ms, Maniksha, the stalls at the event were truly impressive, showcasing a wide variety of games, food, and activities. Each stall was meticulously organized, reflecting the hard work and dedication of the students. The event highlighted excellent teamwork and effort from all participants. Heartfelt congratulations to everyone involved in making this initiative such a grand success!

FROM THE HEADS OF THE SCHOOL

ADMINISTRATION, MANAGER FACILITIES, MR. PATRA SIR'S REMARKS

The Manager, Facilities, remarked that the event was excellent and extended his best wishes to all the students. He appreciated the efforts of the organizing committee and the head of the insiders, congratulating everyone who participated in the event.

VICE PRINCIPAL, SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL (CLASSES IX-XII), MS. SOMA BHATTACHARJEE MA'AM'S REFLECTIONS

The Vice Principal expressed that the students put in tremendous effort and were thoroughly prepared, impressing her with their enthusiasm. She observed the happiness evident in the students, noting that the event provided a refreshing break from their regular studies, allowing them to enjoy themselves fully. She added that when students enjoy an event, the organizing team shares in that joy. She felt very happy to see the Jamboree's great success and that her students had thoroughly enjoyed it. She concluded by thanking everyone involved.

FROM THE HEADS OF THE SCHOOL

VICE PRINCIPAL, SENIOR SCHOOL (CLASSES VI-X), MR. S.B.CHOUDHARY SIR'S INSIGHTS

The Vice Principal expressed his appreciation for the event, describing it as a highly successful and inspiring experience. He emphasized that entrepreneurship is fundamentally about initiating something new, such as launching a business or a startup. He praised the students for their enthusiastic and innovative participation, particularly highlighting the creativity shown even in their food presentations. He further added that integrating these entrepreneurial efforts with art, music, and other creative ideas would greatly benefit the students' future growth and development.

VICE PRINCIPAL, JUNIOR SCHOOL, MS. SHIFA PARVEZ SHAIKH MA'AM'S EXCITING EXPERIENCE

The Vice Principal described the Jamboree as a very exciting and wonderful experience. Having attended last year's event as well, she noticed a significant positive change this time, starting with the vibrant color combinations and well-organized stalls. She observed the excitement in the students as they actively engaged in selling their products, gaining valuable experience in convincing customers and managing sales. She expressed confidence that the children received the right exposure, learning the full process of production, purchasing, bargaining, and selling. Overall, she felt it was a wonderful event filled with happiness and enthusiasm among the students.

FROM THE HEADS OF THE SCHOOL

HEADMISTRESS, KINDERGARTEN, MS. NAJLA MOHD. BUKHARI MA'AM ON HER FIRST JAMBOREE EXPERIENCE

Ms. Najla attended the Jamboree for the first time and shared that it reminded her of her own school days when they used to host a FEST. She praised the children's amazing creativity visible in the activities and highlighted that the best part of the event was seeing the children happy and enjoying themselves.

ACADEMIC COORDINATOR, CLASSES XI-XII, MS. RAKHI MA'AM ON STUDENT PARTICIPATION

Ms. Rakhi expressed her admiration for the students' enthusiasm, noting that they were very well prepared and excited about the event. She also appreciated the large number of students participating, calling it truly remarkable.

FROM THE TEACHERS

MS. ALARMEL SELVI CHANDRAN (TAMIL TEACHER) AND MS. SHINY AHAMED (MALAYALAM TEACHER)

Tamil Teacher Ms. Alarmel Selvi Chandran and Malayalam Teacher Ms. Shiny Ahamed shared their appreciation for the efforts of the students during the event. They noted that teachers visited each stall and carefully observed the exhibits, which added to the excitement and engagement. They praised the students' dedication and preparation, acknowledging that organizing and presenting the displays must have been a challenging task. Both teachers expressed that the students handled it exceptionally well, and it was rewarding to see their hard work reflected in the final outcome. They concluded that the event was a valuable and enjoyable learning experience for everyone involved.

FROM THE TEACHERS

MS. DIVYA ANIL
CHEMISTRY TEACHER, PW

Ms. Divya Anil, Chemistry Teacher, commended the students for their creativity and enthusiasm during the event. She noted that the activity introduced students to essential concepts of marketing, product presentation, and sales strategy. According to her, the initiative provided a practical understanding of how products are developed and promoted in the real market. She also appreciated the innovative efforts of the students, mentioning that one student even created a short film as part of the project. Ms. Divya remarked that the event was a highly encouraging and valuable learning experience for all participants.

MR. SUDHANSU SEKHAR MISHRA
SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHER

Mr. Sudhansu Sekhar Mishra, Social Studies Teacher, expressed that the event serves as an important platform for nurturing future entrepreneurs. He highlighted that through such a large-scale initiative, students gain early exposure to the fundamentals of business and trade. Although the experience begins at a small level, it provides meaningful insight and practical learning. Mr. Mishra stated that these foundational experiences may inspire students to develop entrepreneurial skills and, in the future, pursue innovative ventures of their own.

FROM THE STUDENTS

We are thrilled to present this special edition of the Jamboree Newsletter, celebrating the creativity, energy, and unforgettable moments of the event. Each piece reflects the hard work and dedication of our students, teachers, and organizers. We thank everyone who contributed and hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed creating it!

FROM THE EDITORS

As the In charge of Publication Club , I am thrilled to present the highlights of Jamboree 2025, a joyous celebration of creativity, collaboration, and innovation. Marking our school's Silver Jubilee, this milestone event showcased over 120 vibrant stalls, featuring art, technology, entrepreneurship, and sustainability projects. I am proud of our students' passion and dedication, which beautifully reflected the theme, "Responsible Consumption and Production," inspiring responsibility, creativity, and leadership for the future.

MS. JAYASHREE SRIDHAR
INCHARGE OF PUBLICATION CLUB

It has been a truly rewarding experience to coordinate the efforts of the Publications Club in bringing the Jamboree 2025 Newsletter to life. This edition stands as a reflection of our collective creativity, teamwork, and passion for expression. Jamboree 2025 was much more than an event—it was a vibrant celebration of imagination, innovation, and collaboration. The spirit of togetherness that filled the campus was truly inspiring, and the students' enthusiasm made every moment memorable.

As the Publications Club, we are proud to have captured the essence of this grand celebration through our words and visuals. This newsletter is our humble tribute to the Silver Jubilee of our beloved school, DPS-MIS, Doha, Qatar—a milestone that marks twenty-five years of excellence, growth, and inspiration.
